Proof of identity and address

All prospective bidders must register and provide proof of identity and address to the Auctioneers prior to the start of the sale.

Original documents MUST be provided.

Photocopies are NOT acceptable.

You will need to register before the auction starts if you are intending to bid, as we are required to verify anyone who offers, bids, or buys at butters john bee auctions.

In each case, for proof of ID we will need one item from List A, (if you cannot produce any of the items on list A, then you must produce two of the items on list B). For proof of address one item from List C (If an item is used from List B for the purposes of identity, the same item may NOT be used for the purposes of proof of address) Failure to produce the correct ID will mean you will NOT be eligible to bid on the night.

There are a few options available to you:

- Go to any of our 17 branches, or head office, with your original paperwork, we will then verify for you free of charge
- The Post Office can verify up to three forms of identification, there is however a charge for this service
- A professional body (solicitor, accountant etc.) can also certify your ID and directly send it on your behalf to auctions@bjbmail.com (please note these parties may make a charge directly to you)
- You can bring the relevant documents to the auction venue between 5.00pm and 6.30pm to register free of charge

If you intend to bid via the Internet, Telephone or Proxy, we will require this information prior to the day of the auction. If we do not receive certified identification, we will be unable to bid on your behalf.

If you are bidding on behalf of a company, you will also need to show a copy of the Certificate of Incorporation, a list of directors and a letter of authority on Company letterhead, signed by a company director, prior to signing the contract.

Property auction

buyer's guide

Buying at auction is becoming far more popular with the public, many of whom have never previously attended a property auction. We have drawn up some basic guidelines to ensure that clients maximise their opportunity to take advantage of such a wide variety of properties available at one venue.

- Think ahead, butters john bee hold regular auction sales with a catalogue printed some weeks in advance. Either buy a catalogue from one of our offices or download one FREE of charge from our website buttersjohnbee.com
- Read the catalogue carefully. Each of our properties carries a brief description.
 Read our details thoroughly and identify the properties you are interested in.
- Take a look at the property you are interested in. Contact the office listed for viewing arrangements or see the relevant viewing schedule.
- Take legal advice. Purchasing a property at auction is a firm commitment that carries the same legal implications as a signed contract by private treaty. In most cases we have copies of legal documents in our possession, or your solicitor may wish to contact the vendor's solicitor, these legal packs can often be downloaded from our website.
- Read the general conditions of sale at the rear of the catalogue.
- Get a copy of the addendum. These are available online and contain any late amendments, information or alterations.
- Plan ahead if you require mortgage assistance. Note that prospective purchasers should have the necessary mortgage advice well in advance of future auctions.

- Leave time to get a valuation done if required. Your mortgage finance may be reliant upon the results, not to mention your peace of mind.
- Organise your deposit before the auction. We ask for 10% deposit (subject to a minimum of £1000) once the property is knocked down to you, payable on signing contracts on the day of the auction. Your bank or building society should be made aware of this. The balance of the monies will normally be due within 20 working days of the sale. In addition you have to pay to the auctioneer an administration fee of £800 plus VAT if you purchase at the auction, prior to the auction or post auction. Cheques made payable to butters john bee. Deposits must be paid by bankers draft, personal/business cheque or debit card.
- Make sure the Auctioneer has your bid, by clearly indicating with catalogue or hand.
- Ensure that you have registered with us before the auction starts, and supplied your two forms of identification. You can do this on the night of the auction, just arrive a bit early to give yourself enough time, or you can go into any of our 17 High Street branches prior to the sale and they will certify you ID free of charge. Original documents MUST be provided, photocopies are NOT acceptable. We will also accept certified ID sent direct from a solicitor or professional body.

- Check that the properties included in the catalogue will be offered on the day of the sale. Some may be withdrawn, and some may be sold prior to auction.
- Keep calm. Our Auctioneers understand the pressure that first time auction buyers can experience in the sale room, and will be as helpful as possible.
- Arrive in plenty of time. It is useful to get some knowledge of how sales are conducted by seeing other lots being sold
- If the lot you're bidding for fails to make its reserve it may be that the vendor will decide to accept your bid later so make sure you leave your details with us.
- Be ready to sign immediately when the hammer falls. We shall have a copy of the contract available soon after the hammer falls.
- Be positive, with the right forward planning and research you will find an auction a speedy and simple way of buying a property.
- This catalogue contains details about properties being sold at auction. Those details are subject to change up to and including the day of the auction. Please check our website regularly at buttersjohnbee.com and look out for any additional materials available on the day of the auction, in order to stay fully informed with the up to date information.

- Guide Price: An indication of the seller's current minimum acceptable price at auction. The guide price or range of
- guide prices is given to assist consumers in deciding whether or not to pursue a purchase. It is usual, but not always the case, that a provisional reserve range is agreed between the seller and the auctioneer at the start of marketing. As the reserve is not fixed at this stage and can be adjusted by the seller at any time up to the day of the auction in the light of interest shown during the marketing period, a guide price is issued. This guide price can be shown in the form of a minimum and maximum price range within which an acceptable sale price (reserve) would fall, or as a single price figure within 10% of which the minimum acceptable price (reserve) would fall. A guide price is different to a reserve price (see separate definition). Both the guide price and the reserve price can be subject to change up to and including the day of the auction.
- Reserve Price: the seller's minimum acceptable price at auction and the figure below which the auctioneer cannot sell. The reserve price is not disclosed and remains confidential between the seller and the auctioneer. Both the guide price and the reserve price can be subject to change up to and including the day of the auction.

All our sales are broadcast live in conjunction with Essential Information Group.

What does the service cost?

Nothing! It's free, you pay the same as any buyer who attends the auction.

Can I just watch?

Yes, many people use the service just to watch the auction.

Why do you need to know my maximum bid?

We set a maximum bid in order to process a suitable deposit, but you conduct the bidding and setting a cap does not mean you have to bid to it. You may set a cap of £100,000 but stop bidding at £88,000 – you are in complete control.

Can I bid on more than one property?

Yes. You can buy as many as you can process deposit payments for. You need to let us know which lots you are bidding on so our auctioneer can keep a look out for your bids.

How does the auctioneer know I'm bidding?

The auctioneer has a monitor next to the rostrum that shows him your bid, and he can talk to you via the camera. Don't worry, you can see him but he can't see you!

Email auction@bjbmail.com for your registration form.

The seller is a registered social landlord and is therefore prohibited from selling a property to anyone who is an employee or director of the seller, or was in the last 12 months an employee or director, or is a close relative of such a person or an agent on their behalf.

It is our understanding that this property is considered to be of a non-traditional construction and we therefore suggest that interested parties make enquiries of mortgage lenders as to whether the property is considered suitable for mortgage purposes.

Common Auction Conditions

3rd Edition. Reproduced with the consent of RICS.

The general conditions (including any extra general conditions) apply to the contract except to the extent that they are varied by special conditions or by an addendum.

Glossary

This glossary applies to the auction conduct conditions and the sale conditions.

Wherever it makes sense:

- singular words can be read as plurals, and plurals as singular words;
- · a "person" includes a corporate body;
- · words of one gender include the other genders;
- references to legislation are to that legislation as it may have been modified or re-enacted by the date of the auction or the contract date (as applicable); and
- where the following words printed in bold black type appear in bold blue type they have the specified meanings.

Actual completion date The date when completion takes place or is treated as taking place for the purposes of apportionment and calculating interest.

Addendum An amendment or addition to the conditions or to the particulars or to bothwhether contained in a supplement to the catalogue, a written notice from the auctioneers or an oral announcement at the auction.

Agreed completion date Subject to condition G9.3:

(a) the date specified in the special conditions; or (b) if no date is specified, 20 business days after the contract date; but if that date is not a business day the first subsequent business day.

Approved financial institution Any bank or building society that has signed up to the Banking Code or Business Banking Code or is otherwise acceptable to the auctioneers.

Arrears Arrears of rent and other sums due under the tenancies and still outstanding on the actual completion date.

Arrears schedule The arrears schedule (if any) forming part of the special conditions.

Auction The auction advertised in the catalogue.

Auction conduct conditions The conditions so headed, including any extra auction conduct conditions.

Auctioneers The auctioneers at the auction.

Business day Any day except (a) a Saturday or a Sunday; (b) a bank holiday in England and Wales; or (c) Good Friday or Christmas Day.

Buyer The person who agrees to buy the lot or, if applicable, that person's personal representatives: if two or more are jointly the buyer their obligations can be enforced against them jointly or against each of them separately.

Catalogue The catalogue to which the conditions refer including any supplement to it.

Completion Unless otherwise agreed between seller and buyer (or their conveyancers) the occasion when both seller and buyer have complied with their obligations under the contract and the balance of the price is unconditionally received in the seller's conveyancer's client account.

Condition One of the auction conduct conditions or sales conditions.

Contract The contract by which the seller agrees to sell and the buyer agrees to buy the lot.

Contract date The date of the auction or, if the lot is not sold at the auction:

(a) the date of the sale memorandum signed by both the seller and buyer; or

(b) if contracts are exchanged, the date of exchange. If exchange is not effected in person or by an irrevocable agreement to exchange made by telephone, fax or electronic mail the date of exchange is the date on which both parts have been signed and posted or otherwise placed beyond normal retrieval. Documents Documents of title (including, if title is registered, the entries on the register and the title plan) and other documents listed or referred to in the special conditions relating to the lot.

Financial charge A charge to secure a loan or other financial indebtness (not including a rentcharge).

General conditions That part of the sale conditions so headed, including any extra general conditions.

Interest rate If not specified in the special conditions, 4% above the base rate from time to time of Barclays Bank plc. (The interest rate will also apply to judgment debts, if applicable.)

Lot Each separate property described in the catalogue or (as the case may be) the property that the seller has agreed to sell and the buyer to buy (including chattels, if any).

Old arrears Arrears due under any of the tenancies that are not "new tenancies" as defined by the Landlord and Tenant (Covenants) Act 1995.

Particulars The section of the catalogue that contains descriptions of each lot (as varied by any addendum).

Practitioner An insolvency practitioner for the purposes of the Insolvency Act 1986 (or, in relation to jurisdictions outside the United Kingdom, any similar official).

Price The price that the buyer agrees to pay for the lot.

Ready to complete Ready, willing and able to complete: if completion would enable the seller to discharge all financial charges secured on the lot that have to be discharged by completion, then those outstanding financial charges do not prevent the seller from being ready to complete.

Sale conditions The general conditions as varied by any special conditions or addendum.

Sale memorandum The form so headed (whether or not set out in the catalogue) in which the terms of the contract for the sale of the lot are recorded.

Seller The person selling the lot. If two or more are jointly the seller their obligations can be enforced against them jointly or against each of them separately.

Special conditions Those of the sale conditions so headed that relate to the lot

Tenancies Tenancies, leases, licences to occupy and agreements for lease and any documents varying or supplemental to Tenancy schedule The tenancy schedule (if any) forming part of the special conditions.

Transfer Transfer includes a conveyance or assignment (and "to transfer" includes "to convey" or "to assign").

TUPE The Transfer of Undertakings (Protection of Employment) Regulations 2006.

VAT Value Added Tax or other tax of a similar nature.

VAT option An option to tax.

We (and us and our) The auctioneers.

You (and your) Someone who has a copy of the catalogue or who attends or bids at the auction, whether or not a buyer.

Important notice

A prudent buyer will, before bidding for a lot at an auction:

- Take professional advice from a conveyancer and, in appropriate cases, a chartered surveyor and an accountant;
- Read the conditions;
- · Inspect the lot;
- Carry out usual searches and make usual enquiries;
- Check the content of all available leases and other documents relating to the lot;
- Have finance available for the deposit and purchase price;
- · Check whether VAT registration and election is advisable;

The conditions assume that the buyer has acted like a prudent buyer.

If you choose to buy a lot without taking these normal precautions you do so at your own risk.

Auction Conduct Conditions

A1 Introduction

- A1.1 Words in bold blue type have special meanings, which are defined in the Glossary.
- A1.2 The catalogue is issued only on the basis that you accept these auction conduct conditions. They govern our relationship with you and cannot be disapplied or varied by the sale conditions (even by a condition purporting to replace the whole of the Common Auction Conditions). They can be varied only if we agree.

A2 Our role

- A2.1 As agents for each seller we have authority to:

 (a) prepare the catalogue from information supplied by or on behalf of each seller.
 - (b) offer each lot for sale:
 - (c) sell each lot:
 - (d) receive and hold deposits:
 - (e) sign each sale memorandum; and
 - (f) treat a contract as repudiated if the buyer fails to sign a sale memorandum or pay a deposit as required by these auction conduct conditions.
- A2.2 Our decision on the conduct of the auction is final.
- A2.3 We may cancel the auction, or alter the order in which lots are offered for sale. We may also combine or divide lots.

 A lot may be sold or withdrawn from sale prior to the auction.
- A2.4 You acknowledge that to the extent permitted by law we owe you no duty of care and you have no claim against us for any loss.

A3 Bidding and reserve prices

- A3.1 All bids are to be made in pounds sterling exclusive of any applicable VAT.
- A3.2 We may refuse to accept a bid. We do not have to explain why
- A3.3 If there is a dispute over bidding we are entitled to resolve it, A6.1 and our decision is final.
- A3.4 Unless stated otherwise each lot is subject to a reserve price (which may be fixed just before the lot is offered for sale). If no bid equals or exceeds that reserve price the lot will be withdrawn from the auction.
- A3.5 Where there is a reserve price the seller may bid (or ask us or another agent to bid on the seller's behalf) up to the reserve price but may not make a bid equal to or exceeding the reserve price. You accept that it is possible that all bids up to the reserve price are bids made by or on behalf of the seller.
- A3.6 Where a guide price (or range of prices) is given that guide is the minimum price at which, or range of prices within which, the seller might be prepared to sell at the date of the guide price. But guide prices may change. The last published guide price will normally be at or above any reserve price, but not always – as the seller may fix the final reserve price just before bidding commences.

A4 The particulars and other information

- A4.1 We have taken reasonable care to prepare particulars that correctly describe each lot. The particulars are based on information supplied by or on behalf of the seller. You need to check that the information in the particulars is correct.
- A4.2 If the special conditions do not contain a description of the lot, or simply refer to the relevant lot number, you take the risk that the description contained in the particulars is incomplete or inaccurate, as the particulars have not been prepared by a conveyancer and are not intended to form part of a legal contract.
- A4.3 The particulars and the sale conditions may change prior to the auction and it is your responsibility to check that you have the correct versions.
- A4.4 If we provide information, or a copy of a document, provided by others we do so only on the basis that we are not responsible for the accuracy of that information or document

A5 The contract

- A5.1 A successful bid is one we accept as such (normally on the fall of the hammer). This condition A5 applies to you if you make the successful bid for a lot.
- A5.2 You are obliged to buy the lot on the terms of the sale memorandum at the price you bid plus VAT (if applicable).
- A5.3 You must before leaving the auction:
 (a) provide all information we reasonably need from you to enable us to complete the sale memorandum (including proof of your identity if required by us);
 (b) sign the completed sale memorandum; and (c) pay the deposit.
- A5.4 If you do not we may either:
 (a) as agent for the seller treat that failure as your repudiation of the contract and offer the lot for sale again: the seller may then have a claim against you for breach of contract; or
- (b) sign the sale memorandum on your behalf. A5.5 The deposit:
 - (a) is to be held as stakeholder where VAT would be chargeable on the deposit were it to be held as agent for the seller, but otherwise is to be held as stated in the sale conditions: and
 - (b) must be paid in pounds sterling by cheque or by bankers' draft made payable to us on an approved financial institution. The extra auction conduct conditions may state if we accept any other form of payment
- A5.6 We may retain the sale memorandum signed by or on behalf of the seller until the deposit has been received in cleared funds.
- A5.7 If the buyer does not comply with its obligations under the contract then:

 (a) you are personally liable to buy the lot even if you are
 - acting as an agent; and
 (b) you must indemnify the seller in respect of any loss the
- seller incurs as a result of the buyer's default.

 A5.8 Where the buyer is a company you warrant that the buyer is properly constituted and able to buy the lot.

A6 Extra Auction Conduct Conditions

- Despite any condition to the contrary:

 (a) The minimum deposit we accept is £1,000 (or the total price, if less). A special condition may, however, require a higher minimum deposit
 - (b) Sub-clause (a) of Auction Conduct Condition A5.5 shall be deemed to be deleted and shall be replaced with the following: "(a) is to be held as agent for the seller unless expressly stated otherwise in the special conditions provided that where VAT would be chargeable on the deposit were it to be held as agent for the seller, the deposit will be held as stakeholder despite any contrary provision in any condition; and"
 - (c) where the deposit is paid to us to be held as stakeholder, we may if we choose transfer all or part of it to the seller's conveyancer for them to hold as stakeholder in our place. Any part of the deposit not so transferred will be held by us as stakeholder.
- A6.2 The buyer will pay an administration fee of £800 plus VAT to us for each lot purchased at the auction, prior to auction or post auction in addition to the deposit.
- A6.3 The buyer will provide proof of identity and residency to us.
 A6.4 We may accept payment by debit or credit card. Credit card payment is not allowed for payment of deposit.
- A6.5 We may refuse admittance to any person attending the auction. We do not have to explain why.
- A6.6 The buyer will be photographed at the auction before the contract is signed.
- A6.7 The Seller will not be under any obligation to remove any rubbish or other items whatsoever from the lot prior to completion of the purchase and the Buyer will not be allowed to delay completion or refuse to complete or claim compensation in respect of any rubbish or other items remaining on the lot.

General Conditions

Words in bold blue type have special meanings, which are defined in the Glossary.

The general conditions (including any extra general conditions) apply to the contract except to the extent that they are varied by special conditions or by an addendum.

- G1.2 The lot is sold subject to any tenancies disclosed by the special conditions, but otherwise with vacant possession on completion.
- The lot is sold subject to all matters contained or referred G1.3 to in the documents, but excluding any financial charges: these the seller must discharge on or before completion.
- G1 4 The lot is also sold subject to such of the following as may affect it, whether they arise before or after the contract date and whether or not they are disclosed by the seller or are apparent from inspection of the lot or from the documents:

(h) matters that ought to be disclosed by the searches and enquiries a prudent buyer would make, whether or not the buver has made them; and

(i) anything the seller does not and could not reasonably know about

- G1.5 Where anything subject to which the lot is sold would expose the seller to liability the buyer is to comply with it and indemnify the seller against that liability.
- The seller must notify the buyer of any notices, orders, G1.6 demands, proposals and requirements of any competent authority of which it learns after the contract date but the buyer must comply with them and keep the seller indemnified
- G1.7 The lot does not include any tenant's or trade fixtures or

- G1.9 The buyer buys with full knowledge of:

(a) the documents, whether or not the buyer has read

(b) the physical condition of the lot and what could reasonably be discovered on inspection of it, whether or not the buyer has inspected it.

G2 Deposit

- G2.1 The amount of the deposit is the greater of: (a) any minimum deposit stated in the auction conduct conditions (or the total price, if this is less than that minimum); and
 - (b) 10% of the price (exclusive of any VAT on the price).

- G2.3 Where the auctioneers hold the deposit as stakeholder they are authorised to release it (and interest on it if applicable) to the seller on completion or, if completion does not take place, to the person entitled to it under the sale conditions
- G2 4 If a cheque for all or part of the deposit is not cleared on first presentation the seller may treat the contract as at an end and bring a claim against the buyer for breach of contract. Interest earned on the deposit belongs to the seller unless
- G2.5 the sale conditions provide otherwise.

G3 Between contract and completion G3.1

- Unless the special conditions state otherwise, the seller is to insure the lot from and including the contract date to completion and:
 - (a) produce to the buyer on request all relevant insurance details:
 - (b) pay the premiums when due;
- (c) if the buyer so requests, and pays any additional premium, use reasonable endeavours to increase the sum insured or make other changes to the policy;
- (d) at the request of the buver use reasonable endeavours to have the buyer's interest noted on the policy if it does not cover a contracting purchaser;
- (e) unless otherwise agreed, cancel the insurance at completion, apply for a refund of premium and (subject to the rights of any tenant or other third party) pay that refund to the buyer: and
- (f) (subject to the rights of any tenant or other third party) hold on trust for the buyer any insurance payments that the seller receives in respect of loss or damage arising after the contract date or assign to the buyer the benefit of any claim; and the buyer must on completion reimburse to the seller the cost of that insurance (to the extent not already paid by the buyer or a tenant or other third party) for the period from and including the contract date to
- G3.2 No damage to or destruction of the lot nor any deterioration in its condition, however caused, entitles the buyer to any reduction in price, or to delay completion, or to refuse to complete.
- G3.3 Section 47 of the Law of Property Act 1925 does not apply. G3.4 Unless the buver is already lawfully in occupation of the lot the buyer has no right to enter into occupation prior to completion.

> (a) the buyer must supply a draft transfer to the seller at least ten business days before the agreed completion date and the engrossment (signed as a deed by the buyer if condition G5.2 applies) five business days before that date or (if later) two business days after the draft has been approved by the seller; and

(b) the seller must approve or revise the draft transfer within five business days of receiving it from the buyer.

- G5.2 If the seller remains liable in any respect in relation to the lot (or a tenancy) following completion the buyer is specifically to covenant in the transfer to indemnify the seller against that liability.
- G5.3 The seller cannot be required to transfer the lot to anyone other than the buyer, or by more than one transfer.

G6

G6.1 Completion is to take place at the offices of the seller's conveyancer, or where the seller may reasonably require, on the agreed completion date.

The seller can only be required to complete on a business day and between the hours of 0930 and 1700.

- G6 6 Where applicable the contract remains in force following completion.

G7 Notice to complete

- The seller or the buyer may on or after the agreed G7.1 completion date but before completion give the other notice to complete within ten business days (excluding the date on which the notice is given) making time of the essence.

That termination is without prejudice to the claims of either seller or buyer for breach of this condition G9.

Interest and apportionments G10

- If the actual completion date is after the agreed G10.1 completion date for any reason other than the seller's default the buyer must pay interest at the interest rate on the price (less any deposit paid) from the agreed completion date up to and including the actual completion date.
- G10.2 Subject to condition G11 the seller is not obliged to apportion or account for any sum at completion unless the seller has received that sum in cleared funds.  - charge VAT on them If, after completion, it is found that the sale of the lot is not
 - a transfer of a going concern then: (a) the seller's conveyancer is to notify the buyer's
 - conveyancer of that finding and provide a VAT invoice in respect of the sale of the lot; (b) the buyer must within five business days of receipt of the VAT invoice pay to the seller the VAT due; and
